

What is Voting?

Supported Book

What is Voting? - Supported

Published by Widgit Software

© Widgit Software 2021

This book is available electronically from

www.widgit.com/resources

Written and published by:

Widgit Software

26 Queen Street

Cubbington

Leamington Spa

CV32 7NA

All of the materials are copyright. Files and documents printed from those files may be used within the purchasing organisation. They may not be passed to other centres.

Voting is good for giving your opinion.

Adults vote in elections.

Children vote for school council members.

People vote for television programmes.

Voting

allows

people to give their

opinion

secretly.

People are honest

when they

vote

secretly.

You can

vote

by

marking a piece of paper.

You can

vote

at

meetings

by

putting your hand up.

Adults  can  vote for who  runs the country.

The people who  run the country  are called  politicians.

 Politician are  elected.

This is called an  election.

18+

If you are over 18 you can register to vote.

You register to vote with your local council.

You can arrange to vote by post.

You can arrange a friend to vote on your behalf.

Before an election, the council send you a polling card.

You take this to a polling station.

Go into the polling booth.

Mark the ballot paper and put it in the ballot box.

People vote on television programmes.

They might vote for their favourite singer.

They might vote for their favourite celebrity.

They might vote for their favourite dancers.

Television programmes use different ways to vote.

Adults can ring a phone number.

Voting by phone costs money.

You can sometimes vote online.

ballot paper

ballot box

polling booth

polling station

polling card

vote

vote online

telephone vote

post

local council

election

politician