The two men say, "It is three days since the crucifixion.

This morning some women went to the tomb but it was empty.

Other followers went and saw the tomb but there was no body.

The angels say, "Jesus is alive."

The two men say, "The women saw some angels.

The angels spoke to the women.

The angels told the women Jesus is alive!"

Jesus talks about the truth.

Jesus says to the men, "You are foolish not to realise what is true. The prophets said Jesus must suffer before he enters his glory." Then Jesus explains all that is written about him.

Jesus gets ready to eat with the two men. Jesus takes bread, gives thanks, divides it and gives it to the men. When he does this the men are allowed to recognize him.

As the two men recognize Jesus he disappears.

They say, "When Jesus talked to us it felt like a fire burning inside us.

It was exciting when he explained the scriptures."
