

What happens at Hanukkah?

A candle on the menorah is lit before the evening meal.

The meal always includes fried foods like potato latkes.

The oil used to fry these foods is significant.

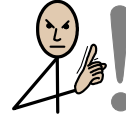

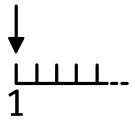

It links back to making the Temple clean and holy again.

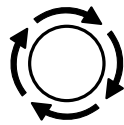

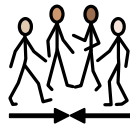

What happens at Hanukkah?

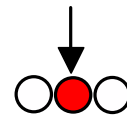

The first night of Hanukkah is important.

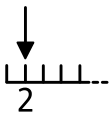

Jewish families gather round the special menorah.

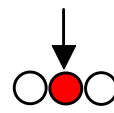

1

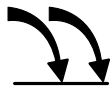

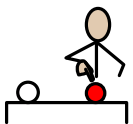

One candle is lit from the candle in the middle.

2

On the second night two candles are lit from the middle candle.

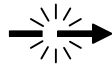

8

This is repeated for eight nights.
