

Christmas is a time for celebrations.

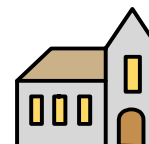

Holy books tell stories of Jesus' birth in Bethlehem.

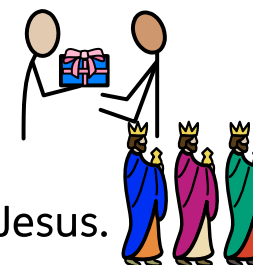

Remembering Jesus' birthday is important at Christmas.

In many churches, religious services are held.

Some people give each other gifts at this time of year.

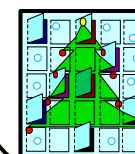

The Three Kings bought special gifts for the new baby Jesus.

Mary and Joseph celebrated his birth with shepherds and The Three Kings.

Advent calendars count down the days to Christmas.

Some people celebrate with family and friends.

