Now Judas sees the Jewish leaders are going to kill Jesus.
He feels very sorry for what he has done.

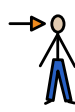

30

Judas wants to return the thirty silver coins.

Judas goes to the leader to give back the money.
He says, "I sinned. I gave you an innocent man to be killed."
The Jewish leader says, "That's a problem for you, not for us."

Judas Kills Himself

Judas does not want the money now.
He throws it into the temple.
Then he leaves that place and hangs himself.

The Priests cannot keep the coins.

The leading priests pick up the coins in the temple.

They say, "It is against the law for us to keep this money.

We cannot keep money that has been used to pay for a man's death."

The Priests buy a field.

The priests use the money to buy a field.

The field is called Potter's Field.

It is a place to bury people who die while visiting Jerusalem.
