

Tigers

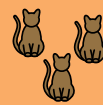

Tigers

are

from

the feline

family

of

mammals.

Tigers

are the biggest

cats

in the world.

Baby

tigers

are called

cubs.

Cubs

stay with

their mother

for

2

years.

Tigers

are

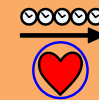

carnivores.

They eat

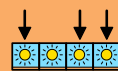

meat

to survive.

Tigers

usually

hunt

their prey

at night.

Tigers

Tigers

are

solitary

animals,

they

like to

live

alone.

Tigers

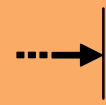

can

run fast

-

up to

65

km

per hour!

Tigers

live in

the

rainforests,

grasslands

and

savannas

of

Asia.

Tigers

are

excellent

swimmers.

A tiger's

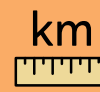

roar

can be

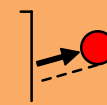

heard

3

km

away.

Tigers

are

an endangered

species.