

My

Alien

Dinner

Lady

Story and drawings by Julie Barclay

 One day  an alien  came to  visit a  small  town  in  Yorkshire.

 The alien  wanted a  job.

The alien looked funny with a long tail a big head,
bright red eyes and big ears.

So the alien changed into a person.

The alien went to a local school for a job.

She

saw

the

head teacher

and

got

job

as

a

dinner

lady.

 Everyone thought alien was a real person.

The

 loved

 and

 played

 games

 with them.

 Everything was going well and the alien had made friends

 with the other dinner ladies and the children.

... →      +

Then one day the alien shouted at some children and her eyes changed bright red.

That was strange.

The children ran away crying to another dinner lady

and told her about the red eyes.

The dinner lady said "Go and play".

The  next  day the  alien  shouted at  more  children + and her  tail  started  growing  longer +  longer.

The children ran away crying to another dinner lady

and told her about the red eyes.

The dinner lady said "Go and play".

The  next  day the  alien  shouted at two  children  and her  ears  started  growing  bigger.

The  children  didn't want to  play with the  new  dinner  lady.

The alien was very sad.

The alien tried hard not to shout at children.

She didn't want to change back into an alien.

The  alien  went back to the  space ship

+  and read  a book  about  aliens.

 She  found out  that if  she was  not  cross  with the  children

 she  would not  change back into an  alien  but  stay as a  person.

 She  would like  that.

 Now  everyday  the  never  shouts  or  gets cross

 with  anybody  and  has  stayed a  person  forever.

?    =
Could your dinner lady be the alien that never gets cross?
